A Group of 20 students from Jammu and Kashmir State called on the Governor of Uttarakhand Smt. Baby Rani Maurya at Rajbhawan on Thursday. They were the students of Government Degree College Thanamandi of District Rajauri. These students were on Uttarakhand visit under Operation Sadbhawana conducted by Indian Army. Thanamandi village is a hilly region 20 km away from Rajauri and 170 km away from Jammu.

During the meeting these young students expressed their views on career opportunities, society, politics and other current issues. Governor affectionately took introduction of every student in detail and asked about their career planning. Students expressed interests in joining civil services, Indian Army, education field. Students also discussed about their families, villages and social background. They told that their villages have the same climate as in the Dehradun.

While addressing the students Governor said that culture of India has unity in diversity. Communal harmony and mutual brotherhood is integral part of our traditions. Youth can achieve any target in life with hard work and dedication.

Governor added that young people should work for the progress of their village, society and Nation after getting good education. Youth must not fall prey to allurements. We have to work for the youth who have deviated and bring them back to mainstream of society. Army is for our security and help. Answering a question Governor said that educated, honest youth should not hesitate to join politics. They should serve the society, connect with the people, help the poor and spread the awareness about welfare schemes of government amid people. Governor also emphasized on the women empowerment and girl child education. Governor presented mementos to all the students.

Secretary to Governor Mr. R K Sudhanshu was also present on the occasion.
