

सत्यमेव जयते

Rajbhawan Uttarakhand-Information Wing
Press Note

Raj Bhawan, Dehradun, March 14, 2019

On the occasion of famous folk festival of Uttarakhand Phool Dei children reached the Rajbhawan and showered the flower petals on the main entrance of Rajbhawan on Thursday. Governor Smt Baby Rani Maurya received the children on the entrance. Little girls carrying beautiful small baskets filled with flowers wished the Governor Smt. Baby Rani Maurya. Following the traditions Governor happily welcomed the little girls and gave them rice and other grains in return of their wishes.

Governor said that Phool Dei is the festival dedicated to the conservation of nature. Phool Dei festival is uniqueness of Uttarakhand and spreads the message of closeness between life and nature. We have to connect our children with folk culture and traditions. Governor expressed happiness to see little girls being involved in this traditional festival.

Secretary to Governor Shri R K Sudhanshu and organiser of event Shri S. B. Maithani were also present on the occasion.

-----0-----