

Raj Bhawan Information Wing, Uttarakhand
Press Note

Governor Greets People of Uttarakhand on New Year

Dehradun, 31st December,2011 Uttarakhand Governor, Smt Margaret Alva,has greeted the people of the state on the occasion of the new year ,wishing them peace and prosperity.

“As 2012 arrives, I wish the people of Uttarakhand a New Year of peace and prosperity,” she said in her message on the occasion.

The governor said that the country faced many challenges today including poverty, illiteracy and discrimination . “We need to make the necessary corrections to ensure a better future for the nation, “ she said. She said that she hoped that the forthcoming elections in Uttarakhand would be peaceful and orderly and voters would exercise their constitutional duty of casting their votes.

“ May our State march towards a glorious future in the New Year,” said the governor.

-----0-----